PERTH VIEWERS SET TO RECEIVE LIVE NRL COVERAGE EVERY WEEK ON

In a big win for rugby league fans, Channel Nine announced today that it will begin broadcasting NRL matches LIVE into Perth effective immediately.

The move comes as a result of a change to the anti-siphoning list unveiled today by the Minister for Broadband, Communications and the Digital Economy, Senator Conroy

The decision means Friday night's blockbuster between Melbourne Storm and the Newcastle Knights at AAMI Park will be beamed LIVE into Perth from 4.30pm on GEM.

This will be followed by a delayed telecast of the Brisbane Broncos versus St George Illawarra Dragons game at Suncorp Stadium from 6.30pm.

Then on Sunday at 2.00pm on GEM, Perth audiences will be treated to the NRL edition of The Sunday Footy Show.

This will lead straight into the 4.00pm broadcast of the Wests Tigers versus South Sydney Rabbitohs match from Allianz Stadium.

Perth viewers will now enjoy the Friday night double-header from 4.30pm, the NRL edition of The Sunday Footy Show from 2.00pm, and the Sunday afternoon match from 4.00pm, every week on GEM.

FRIDAY NIGHT NRL
4.30pm - 8.30pm

THE SUNDAY NRL FOOTY SHOW
2.00pm - 4.00pm

SUNDAY AFTERNOON NRL
4.00pm - 6.00pm
