

Round 14 News

Edition 14 - 4/08/17 to 6/08/17

OFF THE FENCE PREVIEW -

Kalamunda Bulldogs v Joondalup Giants

Persistence has been the key for the Bulldogs this season. Showing great clubmanship, everyone is hoping the Bulldogs can get off their 0 points tally before the end of the season. The Giants however will be making sure it isn't their scalp. After a last gasp win over North Beach last week, the Giants will head to Charlottes Vineyard on Saturday looking to extend the gap that keeps them in the top 4. If results go their way this weekend, the Giants could end up joint 2nd, which would be a great achievement for Darren Smith's men considering their lengthy injury list this season.

North Beach Sea Eagles v South Perth Lions

In what could be their last chance saloon this season, the Sea Eagles host long-time rivals South Perth. Now 3 points behind 4th place, Beach will be looking to keep in touch with the top 4, and a loss could spell the end of their season. The South Perth Lions will come into the clash high on confidence, after a tough 14-10 win over the Roosters. The forwards battle between Scott Jones and Gershom Adams will go a long way to determining the outcome of the game. Both teams will be highly motivated by their respective coaches Justin 'Barney' Nixon and Matt Doeg, with the rival coaches hoping their passion will rub off on their players.

Fremantle Roosters v Rockingham Sharks

Ken Allen hosts the top 2 teams this week, with the Sharks circling the Roosters. The Sharks have a 2 point lead over the Roosters, meaning this is a must win match if Delane's men are going to win the Minor Premiership. On their day, the Roosters can destroy any team in the competition, but that kind of performance has been few and far between so far in 2017. The Sharks are finally living up to their hype, with strong performances over South Perth and Kalamunda during the last couple of weeks. This has all the ingredients for a cracker of a game!
