Edition 5- 19/05/17 to 21/05/17

OFF THE FENCE PREVIEW -

South Perth Lions vs Joondalup Giants

It's 1st against 2nd as the Giants travel down the freeway to George Burnett Park this week. Still undefeated, the Lions will look to continue their early season form, with Isaac Thomas and Scott Jones leading the way. The Giants on the other hand will look to take another big scalp, after already defeating Fremantle and North Beach this season. Joondalup will be lead around the park once again by Jeremy Browne, and have bolstered their bench with the inclusion of local junior Lee Te Maari. This game has all the ingredients to be a cracker!

Fremantle Roosters vs Kalamunda Bulldogs

After a strong performance last week against the Sharks, Fremantle will look to remain in the winning circle with another good outing against the Bulldogs. The Roosters will look towards James Aspden and Taiapa Graham to once again set the standard for the boys to follow. After a tough game against the Giants, Kalamunda will bring their A game to Ken Allen Field, with Captain/Coach Bruce Anderson continually working hard on and off the field.

Rockingham Sharks vs North Beach Sea Eagles

In the game of the round, Rockingham welcome North Beach to the Franklin Offshore Sportsplex. With 7 players being named in the State Team, the Sharks will look to show they are the real deal this season. Benjamin Bolth and Reece Potter will set the platform, creating opportunities for Connor Hudson and Geordie Connolly out wide. The Sea Eagles will lean on their experience over the coming weeks, with a big injury list taking its toll on the club. Taurean Sheehan comes back into the North Beach squad, and will add versatility to their line-up.
