Edition 6- 26/05/17 to 28/05/17

OFF THE FENCE PREVIEW -

North Beach Sea Eagles vs Fremantle Roosters (Playing for the Noel Williams Cup) - 3.30pm Kick Off

North Beach were impressive last week and for the first time this year there seems to be a bit more stability in the line up. With the addition of Cairo Takarangi the Sea Eagles will gain some polish at the end of their sets. The big benefit for Fremantle at the moment has been their ability to put the same team on the park each week. Fremantle will be very hard to beat, but on paper this is the best North Beach squad we have seen this year, so it should be a cracker of a game and one that is worthy of the Noel Williams Cup.

Kalamunda Bulldogs vs South Perth Lions - 3.30pm Kick Off

Like a fine bottle of wine Kalamunda are maturing each week and with Levi Kissick-Ponga back this week, they are getting closer to causing the upset that they know is coming this year. After a tough encounter last week, South Perth have a growing injury list and coach Nixon now has a great opportunity to introduce some new cubs from out of the Lions Den and into the Premiership.

Joondalup Giants vs Rockingham Sharks - 5.30pm Kick Off

Once again a Premiership game will be played under lights and for these two teams it just adds to the occasion. Joondalup are on top of the ladder and they like the way it feels. Even though they have lost young Gus Marshall for the next month or so, they still have outstanding options like Jason Rapana and Lee Te Maari in the starting line up allowing them to stay solid. With the slight chill in the air (cue the JAWS sound track) the Rockingham Sharks are looking to begin a feeding frenzy and put the bite on the Giants new position, the Sharks know firstly they will have to deal with arguably one the best forward packs in the WA Smarter than Smoking Premiership competition.
