

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU JOIN GOOD SPORTS

A step-by-step guide to navigating the Good Sports online accreditation program.

The online portal is simple and easy to use. You can work through the program at your own pace. Log in on your phone or tablet, to access Good Sports anytime and anywhere.

1 REGISTER

Fill in a quick form with your club's details to register for Good Sports. You'll then get a confirmation email and be able to create your club account in the online portal.

2 QUESTIONNAIRE

Start with a quick tour of your portal dashboard. Then begin the questionnaire, where you'll answer a series of questions about your club.

3 ACTION PLAN

As you complete the questionnaire, you will be building an action plan to help prioritise your club's work. Actions and policy line items will be added automatically as you go along.

4 GOOD SPORTS ACCREDITED

Progress through questions and actions to generate your first policy to share with your club. This will include things like alcohol and tobacco management. It changes depending on the needs of your club. Get the policy signed by your committee members to become an accredited Good Sports club.

5 KEEP GOING

Continue to work through the questionnaire and action items. Your most important tasks will appear in order on your dashboard, so you can easily see what you need to complete on the way to the next policy.

6 GOLD MEDAL ACCREDITED

Once you have completed the entire questionnaire, with all actions and had your complete policy signed off, you'll then become a Gold Medal Good Sports club. It covers alcohol and tobacco management, illegal drugs, mental health, a safe transport plan and supporting junior members (if applicable). Congratulations – this means you've reached the highest level of the program.

7 A QUICK CHECK IN EACH YEAR

From here, you'll check in yearly to ensure your club is on top of everything. The Good Sports program is designed for busy volunteers. You only need to dedicate a few hours each year to make your club an even more welcoming and family-friendly place.
