

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY REVIEW

Rockingham Sharks vs Joondalup Giants - It crunch time now for these two sides. The Sharks have been a class act. Showing the prowess with the ball that they want to play with these days. On the back of some epic forward play from Tuuta-Edwards and Pera, the sharks welcome some more artillery in the form of Julian Wilson-Wyllie and Mathew Rangiua. The Giants have ground out some tough victories, and will be looking for a bit more free flowing work. Houghton, Irvine and Searle will look to turn it up today, but the form of Adam Smith has been immense as he turns back the clock.

South Perth Lions vs Fremantle Roosters - Well the story of the day is Isaac Thomas, who will be looking at playing in his 300th First Grade game which is an amazing achievement. And the Lions will be looking get one up for him. Their forward pack will need to come through, as the Fremantle engine is just starting to click into gear. For Fremantle, they will be looking to spoil the party, especially with the great form of Rangihaeata, Kemp and Kerr pulling the strings. Edwards will still have the Roosters with plenty to work on, but knows competitions are not won in May.

Ellenbrook Rabbitohs vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Ellenbrook return home to face the defending premiers in North Beach and it has been a tough year for the Bunnies. But they are not down. The vibe is good, and even the Roosters conceded that the contest was tough. They get Palmer back, who is a massive in, and Desmond Tuataha was excellent last week and keeps his spot. North Beach get some troops back for this one after their loss to the Sharks last week, with a tactic shift. Buckley goes to 6, with Wallace still missing, which brings the ever reliable Burley into the 9 spot. They will look to control proceedings with the forwards in this one.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE TAG

The Kwinana Local Stadium, Lark Hill Sportsplex - Kick Off - 3:50pm

Rockingham Sharks vs Joondalup Giants

Similar to the Val Murphy Game, it seems like the League Tag competition is starting to sort itself out. With the Roosters and North Beach starting to assert themselves, and South Perth showing they can still get it done, the Tigers will fight with the Sharks and Giants for that all important 4th spot. And its an intriguing one today.

The Sharks will be annoyed with their effort last start against the Sea Eagles and will be looking to put in a better effort today. Candice Tamatoa is one of their leaders and really needs to stand up, along with newbie Kaycee Yeates, while the Gilchrist sisters have had enough time at this level now and need to go up again. Can they live up to their potential?

For the Giants, they look incredibly short. Injuries, sickness and work are battering away at their side, and they will be relying on their experience to guide them home. We know the names. Spence. Gilmor-Spence. Utia. Wylie. But watch for some of the newbies in Edwards, Good and the returning Hamlin to give them a bit of extra push today.

Rockingham Sharks vs Joondalup Giants

Its almost crunch tim for these two sides. With North Beach, South Perth and Fremantle asserting their authority in the Val Murphy Competition, it looks likes the Tigers, Sharks, Giants and the Bears will be fighting for the right to join them in the finals this year.

The Sharks have had a tough draw, and injuries in their spine, but they get some serious cattle back this week. Karlo Trego drops down to give them some class in the halves, and with Peter Worth back in the mix they will have some more direction. Add in the talented Eric Koroa at 9 and they will be rearing to go today.

The Giants are a bit light on the ground, but wills till fancy themselves in this fixture. Fullback Kaea Walker is an exciting player, and part of their amazing Kalgoorlie connection which also includes the intimidating Walter Paekau. Watch for the class of Kuraau Temata and Macey Howarth. Both have loads of experience they will need to call on to win this one.
