Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY REVIEW

South Perth Lions vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Its round 6, so we begin again in Premiership, and the Lions will start feeling the heat now. With only a win against the Rabbitohs, they have been in all their games, but unable to finish the job, with their in-ability to tick the scoreboard over frustrating them. But a familiar name in Jacobs on the bench could change that. The Sea Eagles were back to business last week with a clinical display against the Bunnies, and they will be looking to remain towards the top of the ladder after this one. Burley's form in particular has been amazing.

Fremantle Roosters vs Joondalup Giants - We are mid season now, and this is when the Roosters start to warm up. They are still missing a few troops, but give starts to the Sanders boys, along with Gabe Setu onto the wing. But its their spine that has been lighting it up. Edwards, Kemp, Kerr, Rangihaeata. Having the same names on the sheet week to week helps. For Joondalup, they continue to hang in there in their games against some strong sides, and put themselves in positions to win. They came up short against the sharks, but will fancy their grinding style against the Roosters entertainers. Love-Mitchell is a nice in for them along with the Davis boys together, while their bench should add serious punch.

Ellenbrook Rabbitohs vs Rockingham Sharks - Improvement is the big word at Ellenbrook. 92-10 was the last score. Anything better than that will be a step forward, and they will continue to fight the Bunnies. Te Wake has been a nice find at fullback, while Sharpe continues to show leadership. For the Sharks, Jerome goes to 6, with Hudson at 1, so it will be business as usual as they are familiar with those spots. Their punch in the middle with Mato, Pera & Tuuta-Edwards, with Jeffrey scheming off the bench is.... in a word.... Scary.

South Perth Lions vs North Beach Sea Eagles

Both teams sit comfortably inside the 4 at the moment, but a win in this one would separate the top 2 from the rest. With Roosters comfortably at the top, and looking on their way to finishing in the top spot, which clubs wants to join them atop the pile.

For the Lions, they have been trucking along admirably as defending premiers, especially considering the cattle they have lost. The Red Flash is gone along with the MVP of last years final, and a couple of other big guns. But Howes is in rare form and picking up the slack, while Suamili and Smith can still play with the best of them. They will fancy themselves here.

For Beach, a close loss to the Tigers a few weeks back saw them take their frustration out on the Sharks as they played themselves back to form. But they also have some big outs. Both Robinson sisters have long term injuries, but the return of April Alan and the sparkling form of Cox and Loundes has been keeping the machine ticking along. They will be looking to steal one at the Lion den this week.

North Beach Sea Eagles Maroon vs North Beach Sea Eagles White

Well North Beach had the numbers, and the players now have the chance to go head to head on the field instead of at training. While it will be a bit of a grudge match in itself, its also very interesting contest. Maroon lead the competition, being unbeated since VMT kicked off, while White are 2/2 and building a nice record of their own.

Even before the introduction of the second team, Maroon were looking very strong. Young gun Caleb Roberts is playing fantastic footy which sees him playing Premiership some weeks. Throw in tried and true forwards like Ryle, Tetai-Boyce and Wootton, and their back 5 are some of the most underrated youngsters in the game, who could easily fill a premiership backline. They will be hard to beat.

For White, they won't die wondering. Building wins to start the year, they've got some ballers of their own. Shane Toka is one of the most under appreciated spine players in the competition, and throw in the experienced Alex Mauri and they can match spines with some of the best. Throw in bull at a gate players Michael Ngo and Hung Duy Ho, and they won't die wondering. What a game this could be.
