

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

MATCH DAY REVIEW - MND AWARENESS ROUND

North Beach Sea Eagles vs Joondalup Giants - MND Awareness Round hits full steam up at Blueforce Park, with the Sea Eagles taking on the Giants. Both teams are hurting from losses last week, with the Sea Eagles getting blown away in the first half by a fired up Lions side, and the Giants getting taught a footbaling lesson by the ruthless Roosters. So there is plenty to play for in this northern rivalry, with both sides keen to snap straight back to form. The forward battle should be a pearler, with in from Bowman Stein locking horns with returned South African rep Brad Sparrow.

Fremantle Roosters vs Rockingham Sharks - Both of these teams are in hot form. Fremantle are starting to finally click and they disposed of the Giants last week with little difficulty. And it's the guys coming back that just add to the quality. Joseph Po'uuhila is a massive in, along with the returning Brad Gibson. Delane will want them to keep trucking along. For Rockingham, they have a couple noticeable outs. No Jonathon Mato or Andrew Jeffrey leaves them with workman Brody Gilchrist in the 9. While he won't set the world alight, he will work hard and give good ball to the halves, making this game one to watch for any neutral spectator. The battle between the halves will be worth going down to watch alone.

Ellenbrook Rabbitohs vs South Perth Lions - Stay in the fight Rabbitohs. That seems to be the message being sent. Humbled by a rampant Sharks side, they will look to bounce back against the Lions this week, who after last weekends stirring win against north beach, will be looking to keep the momentum going. Watch for centre Raymond in the Bunnies as an x-factor player, while the Lions continue to blood youngsters such as McKay and Therkelsen this weekend. Billy Judge has been the pick of the Lions players as he is giving defensive lines nightmares.
