

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY PREVIEW

South Perth Lions vs Joondalup Giants - Well thanks to the red hot form of the South Perth Lions, the race for the top 4 is back on! With both of these teams sitting on the edge of that coveted finals spot it will be a big one for both sides, especially mentally. Daniel Greens move to the 6, while unconventional, has worked, with the stalwart showing some real leadership. For the Giants, it's a matter of getting everyone healthy and in town at the same time. But Joel Irvine's form in the front row has been superb for the boys from the north. This will be a ripper.

Rockingham Sharks vs North Beach Sea Eagles - 1st vs 3rd place on the ladder, and only 2 games from 1st to 5th. So all games are super important. For the sharks, they have switched some things around with Fui going to the back, and Matanakilagi in the centres, while for the Beach, they are without CAS rep Woolley, but find an able replacement in Constable out wide. One of the things to note in this fixture is the man in the middle. Matt Cecchin, who refereed over 400 NRL games is out there, and should provide for a top quality match up and some great learnings for everyone involved.

Ellenbrook Rabbitohs vs Fremantle Roosters - First of all, the Bunnies are hanging tough and its been respected by everyone in the competition. But they face a stern test today. The Roosters look like kicking into gear now, as they tend to start firing on all cylinders heading into the later part of the year. The Bunnies will look for Palmer, Grey and ex-Rooster Clarkin to lead their brave crew around. For the Roosters, Butler has been a menace on both sides of the ball. Regularly leading the tackle and hit up counts, he is all about the small efforts and is a great example for the other young players the Roosters are bringing in the fold.
