

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY PREVIEW

Fremantle Roosters vs Rockingham Sharks - Its game on in the race for the minor premiership. And while that may not seem like much, but it could be a huge mental advantage for these sides. They have split their games 1 a piece this year, but this one has a little more meaning. The Roosters have been on a rampage. Putting the Giants to the sword 50-10 last week, people have them locked in as premiership favourites. The Sharks, haven't played in a couple weeks, but their last game. Yep a 26-16 loss to those same Giants. But today is a new day, and they won't die wondering.

Joondalup Giants vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Its crunch time for the Giants. Win and they keep their finals hopes alive. Lose, and they have to start relying on other results to go their way. And their northern rivals would enjoy ending their season today. The Giants lineup a bit different. But the bench is the watch. Houghton and Fidow-Kele might have the best impact in the competition off the bench. For Beach, De Vorms comes back in at centre, which pushes Woolley one wider. Lumb comes into the starting lineup while Donkin gets a start in the back row. It'll be on for all money up north.

South Perth Lions vs Ellenbrook Rabbitohs - I'm not alone in the hope that the Rabbitohs survive the last 5 rounds. And they lineup fairly well today. With a full compliment they go to Karawara with an eye on the future. The form of Te Wake has been raising eyebrows as he continues to show his worth week to week. For the Lions, they reset. With a run to the finals on offer, they need to make sure they don't misstep here. Hiko goes to centre, with Thomas at the back while they await the return of on fire fullback Judge. But it's the return of Brandon Timlin which has renewed some real optimism at the Den. A true competitor, he has lifted the energy of those around him and the Lions will fancy a deep run again this year.

Joondalup Giants vs North Beach Sea Eagles

Its ladies day up in Joondalup today, but the Giants and Sea Eagles have some business to deal with first. Usually one of the more heated league tag games, there always seems to be a little bit more intensity in this matchup, especially as the teams vie for a shot at the major semi final against likely minor premiers the Roosters

For Joondalup, they dispatched Fremantle with ease last week, and regardless of anyone being out you cannot overlook how well they dominated the fixture. They are in the zone. Warren is back and winding back up, and Utia has finally found her form from 5 years ago after numerous injuries. But have the peaked too early? Its still a while till the Grand Final and one wonders if they can keep it up.

The Sea Eagles are well aware of the proficiency of their rivals, but will fancy themselves in this one. Though the Giants are a very fast side, the Sea Eagles are no slouches either, with speed merchants in Loundes and Cox in their lineup. But they arguable have the bonus in playmakers. Miller, Whaanga, Marshall, Te Rahui and the old schemer Trudy in the midst, means the Sea Eagles have the tools to hurt you everywhere.

Willagee Bears vs North Beach Maroon Sea Eagles

This game will be an absolute cracker. The Bears are the feel good story for 2022 in Val Murphy Trophy, getting better every week and bringing back the club in their 60 year anniversary season. But they are the big underdogs in this one, with the might of the Sea Eagles VMT side basically the Empire from Star Wars who cast a shadow over every other team in the competition.

The Bears are punching above their weight. A great team to watch, their intensity and willingness to let it all go for the chance of victory makes for exciting contests. But it's a big one today. They suffered a close loss last week, and now face and almost must win clash against the undefeated premiers today. They welcome back favourite son Ryan Mills, while the trusty spine of Pollock, Bannister and Kamso keep ticking over. But its their power forward pack that has been doing the damage.

For the Sea Eagles. Its same same. They don't have any weaknesses as a VMT side, and are universally fitter than the other teams in the competition. With Wade-Whalan partnering Cook in the halves today they are different looking, especially with Noonan in great form of late. Will this matter?
