

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

MATCH DAY PREVIEW

Fremantle Roosters vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Noel Williams Cup - It's a highlight game for both clubs as they battle for a WA Legend. For Fremantle, they came unstuck in a 15 minute period last week, and will be looking to put in a complete performance this weekend. But the form young backrowers Day and Sanders has been promising for the clubs future. For North Beach, they got the job done in a tradesman like performance against the Giants, and a win today will see them lock themselves into the top 4 a couple weeks out. Takarangi really took matters into his own hands last week in a big performance. With state jerseys up for grabs, its time for those fringe players to stand up and be counted.

South Perth Lions vs Rockingham Sharks - Well the Lions have been on a run. Taking some big scalps in the last 10 weeks, its become a bit of a battle of attrition, with injuries everywhere for the lads from South Perth. But they won't get a break today, with the Sharks getting ready for a deep finals run. The Lions get Caleb Norton back, which is timely and allows Timlin to shift to lock and cover some holes. For the Sharks, Murphy definitely looks a type with great pedigree. Ravatudei comes back at fullback for the missing Hunt and Fui makes a welcome return which pushed the imposing Matanakilagi one wider.

Ellenbrook Rabbitohs vs Joondalup Giants - Mental Health Round today at the burrow and it's a massive day for a huge cause. With a huge focus off the field, the on field action should be full of action. The Bunnies have a full deck today, and will go out and give it a crack, but the Giants are wounded and will come out with a vengeance. Needed 3 from 3 wins and some results to go their way, the Giants will be all guns blazing, behind returning Porter who has set the game alight everytime he has been on the field.

Joondalup Giants vs North Beach Sea Eagles

This is another big one in the WLT. Both teams are striving for the finals, and while the Roosters are guaranteed a position, North Beach are still fighting for their right to be involved. With a mental edge on offer as well, lets get into it.

Fremantle come back from a well earned week off and will be ready and rearing to go in this one. They welcome back some missing troops, but their last game showed the other teams that they are beatable with some holes in their game. But when the Roosters are on they are still the side to beat. With speed and skill everywhere, they are a genuinely scary side. With gun player Chambers back in the lineup, young Kelemete is one to watch for the future.

For Beach, they lost in a tight one against the rampaging Giants last week, but are still well in the hunt for the flag. But getting all their players on the pitch, healthy, has been a struggle. But the danger for this one is the every present Lions and surprising Tigers nipping at their heels. They need to make sure they stay with the defending premiers because every point is going to count.

South Perth Lions vs Rockingham Sharks

We have 3 rounds to go and the finals spots for the Val Murphy Trophy are no where near decided. While across town 1 vs 2 in the form of North Beach and Fremantle, at South Perth, the Lions and Sharks will be playing in a game that will have a massive bearing for the rest of the teams.

The Lions led the luckless Serpents last week, and ended up conceding a draw, which has turned the race for 3rd and 4th wide open. They opened the door for the Sharks, Bears and Tigers to jump them on the ladder and face a tricky runhome. But Therakelsen drops back, and with Hulena and Meale a familiar sight in the halves they will be right up for this one.

The Sharks come into this game almost full ball, and needing to continue winning. They sent a big message to the competition last week, and with a spine consisting of Speight, Christy, Koroa and Neilson, they have a right to be confident. Watch for Vota in the centres, as he drops back from 1st grade and will be keen to show them what they are missing.
