

2023 GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY REVIEW

Fremantle Roosters v North Beach Sea Eagles - To kick off the season, we head to Treeby Community and Sports Centre, where the Fremantle Cockburn Roosters look to get their title defence off to a good start against the new look North Beach Sea Eagles. The Roosters look fairly similar, but welcome back the destructive Taiapa Graham, and have snagged the signature of the one and only Julian "The Bus" Wilson Wylie. On the other side, the Sea Eagles are almost unrecognisable from last year, where they will field 11 new players compares to last years starting 17. The exciting duo of Jaylen "Skinny" Grey and Kade McDonald have made a home this year at the Maroon and White, and while the usuals are back, Jayden De Vorms looks fitter than he ever has and is primed for a big year. Will the Roosters start where they left 2022, or will the Sea Eagles steal one on their way back up the highway. Catch this, the BIG GAME on NRL.com.

Rockingham Sharks v South Perth Lions - And continuing down the highway, our other Premiership game see a new look Rockingham Sharks side taking on a South Perth side, who welcome back some troops, while missing some key pieces. For the Sharks, coach Tom Murphy has put trust in the boys who have been there in the preseason, with a new look halves pairing of Trego and Coleman giving the reigns. The experienced coach goes to hooker to allow Gilchrist less pressure in the back row. The Lions get Harry "The Iceman" Debique back along with the return of Luke-David Wells-Talamaivao. But the big hole comes in the form of Ed Proudler, who is having some time off. Can they cove the loss of the superstar half? Watch for the growth of Tere Cameron-Ramea who looks like he is in for a big year in 2023.
