

2023 GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

MATCH DAY PREVIEW

Fremantle Roosters v Rockingham Sharks - It's the home team from MAGIC Round, the Fremantle Roosters taking on who everyone thought would be last years big challengers in the Rockingham Sharks. The Roosters, fresh from a 30-16 win against the Giants, continue to go strength to strength this year and don't look like slowing down at all. Their steady spine of Kemp, Edwards, Kerr and new look hooker Regy Manu have played two on the bounce together and continue to improve. Manu in particular looks a revelation at hooker as he settles into his role. Normally an outside back, the exodus of the Hignett brothers has allowed him to flourish in his new role. The Sharks come off the bye, after a round 01 loss to the Lions and will be looking to start again, with a big inclusion at the back. Daniel Goodwin is in, and is a star, and the continued development of Heremaia-Phillips and Loader continues to show that great juniors are being feed through the Sharks system.

Joondalup Giants vs North Beach Sea Eagles- It's the big clash of the north on MAGIC round and this one should be a cracker. With the Giants coming off a loss to the Roosters, but in similar fashion to the Sea Eagles a fortnight ago, both teams seem evenly matched. For the Giants, Joell Irvine hasn't put a foot wrong and looks a type up front with the return of Zantana Tupuono-Pomare to the Giants in a massive combination. And its hard not to like the energy of Beau White back in rugby league after 12 months off. For North Beach, it is just speed speed speed. Millar & McDonald look unstoppable with space and clear air around them, while Jeremiah King showed last week that he can hold his own out win in the Premiership competition. And everyone look out. The return of the prodigal son in Tyrone Cranston on the bench for North Beach. The 2 time Ken Allen Medal winner is capable of anything.
