MATCH DAY PREVIEW

Rockingham Sharks vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Well its getting to that time for the Sharks. They had a big confidence boosting win last weekend against the Giants and now they need to go on a run to make a contest of that final four. And they run into a North Beach team that will want to put some more space between themselves and the 5th place side. Hayden Wood stays at the back after a great showing, and forces Hudson onto the wing. And new man Paeu comes straight into the centres and has big wraps from those who know rugby league, For Sea Eagles, they are waiting another week for MacDonald, but new man Shand has impressed in his games, and with Wallace in their, their spine is formidable, but its an interesting selection at hooker, with enforcer Papworth pushing into that role.

South Perth Lions vs Joondalup Giants - With Fremantle looking to lock in first place in the next couple of weeks, the fight for second position and two bites at the cherry becomes all the more important. The Lions just want to be able to put the same team on the field week to week and will be looking for some attacking flair from Wells Talamaivao and Lewis in the halves. Their lack of point scoring has been a concern and the temptation to put Debique in the seven must be growing week to week. But the form of Gourgard and Smith has been super encouraging. From the Giants, they need to bounce back after they were thoroughly outplayed by a hungrier Sharks outfit last week, and will be looking for the return of Marshall to steady their ship, while Turner goes to fullback to cover the loss of Haney and Ranger. Houghton off the bench will need to provide a big lift for the men from the North.
