MATCH DAY PREVIEW

South Perth Lions vs Rockingham Sharks - Its was a heartbreaking loss for the Sharks last weekend, when they went down in a close and scrappy affair against the Sea Eagles. And they are almost down to their last chance. Desperate for a win, they take on a Lions side who escaped in a try fest against the Giants last weekend in a game that could not have been any more different than what happened down in Rockingham. For the Lions, they have their top choice back line from 1-7 for the first time this year, and there is points galore. And if your looking through their side, they seem fairly healthy for a change. The Sharks however are missing a bunch. There is no Tuuta-Edwards, Paeu, Barclay, Coleman, Williams, Bolth and a host of others. But they welcome back a crucial piece in Jeffrey in a timely boost. Can he provide enough for the Sharks to stop the Lions?

Fremantle Roosters vs North Beach Sea Eagles - Fremantle are fresh and ready to go after their bye and run into a pretty confident North Beach side. The Roosters will be wanting to wrap up the minor premiership quickly, while North Beach did enough last week to hold off the Sharks, and will want just a bit more space between them and missing the finals. The Roosters are looking healthier, and have new man Jaydon Soloman in the 6, after he has been impressing in the lower grades. The Sanders brothers keep going about their business, but the big in comes on the bench with Peneha back in the lineup in a scary prospect. For the Sea Eagles, they welcome back the unpredictable McDonald, to partner Wallace in the halves, while Papworth stays at 9. Laursen and Adams create a scary starting front row pairing, while Greens inclusion from the bench means that Beach won't be taking a backward step in this one.
