MATCH DAY PREVIEW

North Beach Sea Eagles vs South Perth Lions - Well it was interesting stories last week from these teams. The Beach lost to the front running Roosters, but should be proud of their efforts after losing a bunch of players in the match. On the flipside, the Lions got the win against the desperate Rockingham Sharks, but even their management was not happy with the performance and wanted more from the players. They both come into this one looking to fight for that second place position. The Sea Eagles bring in big experience in Cranston and Trotter who slot into the spine with the reliable duo of Millar and the new and surprising Shand. For the Lions, Noble comes in to start, with Smith going back to lock, and Timlin into the back row for Hocking. Pointing will be looking to make his debut on the bench for the club as well. A ripper in the making.

Joondalup Giants vs Fremantle Roosters - The Giants come off the bye with a bit of a point to prove now. After going down in a try fest to the Lions, they will look to shore up their defence against the professional attacking outfit that is the Roosters. Grealish comes onto the wing, with Kahupokoro who returns from injury on the other. Adam Smith also plays his 200th senior game for the club in what is a great moment for the front row, while Searle makes his first appearance for the year next to his great mate. For the Roosters, Cowan is out for the season, which forces a reshuffle. Riggs comes onto the wing, with Manu and Hignett in the centres, and Wade-Whalan on the other wing. Soloman slots in at hooker, with H Sanders dropping to the bench, while the experience Brad Gibson comes onto the bench to give the Roosters more firepower. If the Roosters win, the Minor Premiership is theirs, but they won't be looking to far ahead.
