

GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

MATCH DAY PREVIEW

North Beach Sea Eagles vs Rockingham Sharks - Last weekend the Sea Eagles hung tough for a big win against a table rival in South Perth, and will be looking to build on the back of that victory, to give themselves the best shot at finishing top 2 and that crucial second chance to get into the grand final. For the sharks, its all about survival. They are running out of chances to make the top 4 this year, and a win in this one would hurtle them back into contention. The Sea Eagles get captain Tarrant back into the squad, but lose key man Trotter in this one. But the halves pairing of Cranston and Shand was effective last week and that stays the same. For Rockingham, they get crucial half Coleman back in the lineup, with Jeffrey starting at 9 which frees Murphy to go back to the backrow where he is most effective. Should be a great game.

Joondalup Giants vs South Perth Lions - Both teams will be disappointed with their games last weekend and come into this one with a point to prove. And the winner also puts some more breathing room between themselves and that dreaded 5th position on the ladder. For Joondalup, they line up almost exactly the same, with only Campbell and Raea on the bench as the new faces. Kahupokoro was one week back last week, and will treasure the extra game time for his body to get used to it. For the Lions, they lose Daniels for what looks like the season, but Adu-Dwumaa has been a revelation as a tough running centre out wide, and the dangerous presence of Ed Proudler on the bench is sure to have the rest of the competition on high alert. With a crucial 2 points on offer, both sides have been accused of not being able to find the line enough against the other sides in the competition.
