GOOSE STEP GAME DAY

Fuel to Go & Play™ Premiership

Match Day Preview

North Beach Sea Eagles vs Fremantle Roosters - It's the Grand Final rematch, but both teams look very different. The Sea Eagles come in with some serious youth, with Stirling MacDonald and Darius Rogers both debuting with the club, while we also get a look at offseason recruit Korey Craig. The ability to lure Royden Gillett back to the club and Kani Solomon also offsets the offseason losses of Kade McDonald and Jaylen "Skinny" Grey. The Fremantle Roosters have also been busy in the off season. They welcome home favourite son Tuakana Rangihaeata, while the Wells-Talamaivao brothers in Luke and Ben will be making their home at the chook house this year. The evergreen Delane Edwards goes around again, while Ken Allen Medallist Duane Butler captains the side yet again.

Joondalup Giants vs South Perth Lions - This game also has a massive new feel about it with both the Giants and the Lions looking very different. For the Giants, the American Haney lines up at the back, while the Davis brothers line up together for the beginning of the year. The Giants also get their man with Gus Marshall lining up in the halves with utility Matt Chaplin. But the return of Lesi Fai and Rangiwananga Kingi is a massive lift for the men from the North. For Souths, the dangerous Daniels lines up at the back, while Proudler and Debique combine in the halves in what is the most experienced lineup in the competition. Gourgaud and Cameron-Ramea make up a youthful but dangerous back row combination. Both sides will be itching to get off to a good start for 2024.
