MATCH PREVIEW

Well the Key match of the round is here, and its a massive one. The two undefeated teams left in the competition, the Lions and Sea Eagles will go head to head for top of the table honours, and it shapes as a big one. The Lions are almost at full tilt, with the notable absentee being Daniels, but Cummings has been amazing in his stints as an edge back rower and looks a likely replacement. Hiko, Proudler and Gourgaud come back into the mix, with Debique and Langi pulling th strings. For Sea Eagles, no excuses. They lose Stein and Gillham, but welcome back 2 time Ken Allen winner Cranston on the roster. England at lock has been a revelation for the Sea Eagles

MATCH PREVIEW

Over at Treeby we have the Roosters, who will be looking to make it two on the trot against a Giants squad, who will be desperate to get off the mark in 2025. The Giants were mauled by the Lions last week and will be looking to make amends with an improved performance. For the Roosters, Richard Hicks and Bjorn Crotty return from suspension, with monster centre Beattie included. Young Mabbett was great last week for the tricolours and holds his spot with Solomon on the bench. For the Giants they lose young gun Brodie Dunn to CAS duties, but welcome back a bunch. Haggart and Ranger make great centre pair, with Williams joining Marshall in the halves.

MATCH PREVIEW

In the final match of the round, at Webber Reserve, the Bears and the Sharks will both look to bounce back hard after defeats last week. The Bears were in their game for a long time against the Sea Eagles, but a couple of poor lapses cost them. Fifita-Tovo debuts in the centres, with Qaranivalu shifting back to the wing. Leota returns from concussion protocols, with Wadwell debuting off the bench. For the Sharks, its a big reshuffle. Worth goes to 6, with Crockett on CAS duty. Wood switches to centre, with Antonelli going to prop, and Te Rauna starting in the 13. Mato comes onto the bench for his first game of the year. This should be an intriguing matchup.
