MATCH PREVIEW

Our game of the round this week is back at Willagee, as the Bears bounce back from their win against the Lions to face the Giants, who are riding high after their first win for the year against the Sharks. The Bears have a few notable outs, none bigger than gun Kainoa Gudgeon, but get Tamaho Teirney back in the halves with livewire Robbie Smith. Wadwell stays at 13, with Cameron and Edwards on the bench. For th Giants, Haggart replaces Ranger in the centres, while White goes into the back row. Dunn holds onto the halves spot. The battle of the hookers here will be brilliant with in form Kamso testing himself against firebrand Colman in a great matchup.

MATCH PREVIEW

At South Perth, the Lions will be hoping to bounce back in style this week as they take on a hurt Fremantle Roosters. Both teams come off losses, with the Lions not adjusting to the rain well last week, and the Roosters leaving it too late against at classy Beach. For the Lions, Kendall debuts in the centres, with Russell starting in the front row with Captein. Tuatara and Taufa make up a new look backrow. For the Roosters, Antonio goes on the wing in place of Riggs, while Kerr joins Edwards in a steady halves pairing. While Mabbett and Solomon keep Wells-Talamaivao in VMT. Tory McKay comes in off a great performance in the Pilbara ANZAC Game.

MATCH PREVIEW

And our final game, down in Rockingham, the Sharks will be looking to change the narrative against the North Beach Sea Eagles. The Sharks have flipped things around with Crockett moving to fullback, and Lawton moving to pair up with Quinlin in the halves. Worth moves into the front row, with some injuries robbing them of some depth in the middle. For North Beach, Wallace and Buckley are away on touch duties, with Cranston and Hextell in the halves, and youngster Sinclair making his debut off the bench. Grey at centre is a big in, coming back succesfully last week. It should be a great weekend of rugby league.
