MATCH PREVIEW

And the ladies are back on a Friday nights, and the first game is a ripper with last years grand finalists on deck. But the Giants are missing a few big ones. No Stephens of Taurima, but Mahuru and Parekura-Schirnack create a nice halves pairing. But on the other side, the Rabbitohs are very different. They've inherited some guns from North Beach, with the Grey sisters back from QLD, in what is a stacked lineup.

MATCH PREVIEW

Well the two new teams are on deck in the NRL Pathways game, and while we don't have much information on the Bulldogs, the Bears are ready and rearing to go. Look for their spine to make an impression, with big impressions expected from Gillard, Burt-Polai and Hodgson all recieving praise. Hodgson in particular has pedigree, starring in the Harmony Cup last year.
