MATCH PREVIEW

Its MND Awareness Round and the teams who started it all go head to head in a massive northern derby clash. And boy have we got a ripper. For the Giants, they have really brought in some big ones. Firstly youngers Rapana gets the spot on the wing, with Babington unavailable. Dunn partners Marshall in the halves. But the Smith brothers are in town, and with Colman coming back in its a devastating back row. And the inclusion of Porter on the bench is a big in. For Beach, Solomon and Grey centre pair with Millar back from CAS, in one of the more threatening partnerships. Cranston and Wallace in the 6/7 has to be one of the greatest beach halves pairings ever.

MATCH PREVIEW

In another derby, which used to be 5 kilometres down the road, the Bears will be looking to get back in the positive column against arch rivals the Fremantle Roosters. The last time these teams met, the Bears came rushing home to overcome a big Roosters lead to ultimately run away with it. For the Bears, Gudgeon, Kelly and Maliko come straight back in. Chizuni is a midseason transfer from the Sharks, and lands in the backrow, while we welcome back Thompson from a broken thumb. For Freo, Edwards, Taomia and Beattie are all back in, with Keil and Antonio returning on an edge. With Lui and Crotty back in as well, this one will be physical.

MATCH PREVIEW

And down the highway we goto Port Kennedy, where another massive game is being played. The young crew from Rockingham showed some of their clubmates how to play with intensity and effort. Although outclassed last week they hung tough and the performances of Webb at the back and Christy at hooker were encouraging. Crockett and Te Rauna are back in, with Siddons a massive in. For the Lions, Daniels, Proudler, Hiko, Evans and Smith all come back in after a big CAS tournament. Roshan & Cummings move to the wing, with Judge maintaining his spot in the top side. The improvement of Russell in the front row is something to behold.
