MATCH PREVIEW

Up in Joondalup, we have a huge battle for these two sides. Joondalup and Rockingham both are looking for something to give them a chance to make that elusive 4th spot. For Joondalup, Cruz Smith jumps in for another game, with Price and young Wynne in the backrow. Lichacz debuts in first grade after some great performances in reserves. For Rockingham Rameka, Siddons and Whitty make a formidable front row, while Bolth returns for the Sharks in what they hope will be a big injection. Lawton earns a recall on the wing, with the halves from both teams looking for a big game to control the tempo and ultimately their own teams destiny.

MATCH PREVIEW

At Karawara, we have our NRL Pathways game of the round, with the Lions looking to continue on their merry way, against a desperate Roosters, and its an intriguing contest for both teams. For the Lions, they get some troops back, with Langi and Barclay coming back in, with Daniels shifting to centre. Fariu and Day start, with some good performances, while Captein goes back to the bench. For Fremantle, they look better than they have in a while. Wilson Wylie is back, with Kerr and Edwards in the halves, and Mabbett back at hooker. Woolley is the new fullback, with Riggs back on the wing, the Roosters will be looking for a big performance to upset the Lions.

MATCH PREVIEW

In the final game of the day, the Willagee Bears will be looking to steal a second chance in the finals by closing the gap on the North Beach Sea Eagles. For North Beach, young gun Bradley replaces Millar at the back, with Buckley in at 9, and Rafferty on the bench to deputise. The bench is impressive, with Stein, Gillett and Sparrow there. For the Bears, Bannister and Mills take on the responsibility in the halves, with Suamili making his first appearance for the year as a utility off the bench. With Grant and Leota in the centres, there is power out there, but it will be the efforts of Wadwell, MacDermott and Tago off the bench that decide this one
