MATCH PREVIEW

It Noel Williams Cup day, and the NRL Pathways Key Game sees two rivals going head to head in what should be a belter. North Beach want to be first, and want that home final, and after a hiccup last week against the last place Sharks will be wanting to get back on the positive ledger. Buckley slides to 6, with Aiesi back in the squad, and Gillham starting up front. For Fremantle, they will be finishing 4th, so its about belief at this stage and can they be a threat in the finals. Woolley is back in a massive in, with Kerr, Wylie, Taomia all massive inclusions as well. Wells-Talamaivao shifts to his natural position at nice, so this should be a bell ringer of a game.

MATCH PREVIEW

At George Burnett Park, another interesting game is taking place. The Lions righted the ship last weekend, but are still not firing at all cylinders. Gerbasch goes to fullback in the only change in the backs, while Evans is back in at 9. Day, Gwiazdzinski and Tuatara back up the backrow, while Daniels comes onto the bench in a fairly settled line up. For the Bears its changes galore again. Gudgeon returns to the back with Kelly unavailable, while Araya Aliivaa comes in for the suspended Leota. Bannister goes to 6 after a great game in VMT last weekend, and Kamso starts again at 9. Davis-Hunt and Hanson have big shoes to fill with no Maliko and Fotu.

MATCH PREVIEW

And in the final game of the weekend, it could be the best game on the card. Both teams are looking to avoid the wooden spoon, so this should be a cracker. For the Sharks its minimal changes to the side who caused a stunning upset. Worth goes to the centres for Lawton (away), while Henry combines with Scott in the halves with Quinlin also unavailable. Antonelli, Whitty and Siddons stay up front and have impressed alot lately. For the Giants, White and Williams swap, with Babington coming into the centres. Favell starts up front with Rikihana into the backrow. Porter who debuted last weekend holds his spot on the bench.
